Program Outline

Home > Program Outline > Program at a Glance

The Congress title for the XXIII IUFRO World Congress, "Forests for the Future: Sustaining and the Environment," will provide the basis for the program scope and format. The structure of the scientific program includes plenary sessions, sub-plenary sessions, technical sessions and poster sessions. The scientific program will give delegates an opportunity to access the latest research and projects conducted by the world's leading experts and scientists.
